B.A English Model III-Field Visit

NIRMALA COLLEGE MUVATTUPUZHA

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIVE ENGLISH

FIELD TRIP REPORT

1. Studio Visit

To familiarize the students with studio and associated techniques of broadcasting the department of communicative English gave an opportunity to the third year B.A. English Model III students to visit the Manorama News and Mazhavil Manorama Studio, Aroor, Kochi on 28 July 2018. During the visit technical experts explained the different television broadcasting processes to students. This experience was indeed helpful to boost up their interest in the field of visual media. It also helped them to know about various aspects of news reporting that enabled them to bring curriculum back to their real life. All the students of the class actively participated in the program and clarified their doubts regarding visual broadcasting.

2. Printing Press Visit

Print Media and Journalism is indeed a course that demands both theoretical and practical knowledge in printing and associated activities. Recognizing this the Department of Communicative English had given an opportunity for experiential learning to the II CE students. The faculty and students visited the Malayala Manorama Press, Kodimatha, Kottayam on 04 February. During the visit the students got familiar with different aspects of printing like the techniques for multiple printing, screen printing, 3D printing, flexography, fabric banner, posters inkjet printing etc. The programs was helpful to nurture interest in the area of journalism and print media among the students.
